Hughes' Big Red Basketeers climaxed a successful season, holding down a third place in the Public High School League; reaching the third round in the Hamilton County Class A District Tournament completing a record of 13 victories and eight defeats.

Winning eight and dropping four, the Big Reds clinched a third berth in the PHSL. Among the league games one victory, of the eight, stood out as the most exciting and also the biggest upset of the season, which was the Western Hills game. It was Western Hills' only defeat of the season.

Ken Hixson and Ron James stood out as the outstanding ball players of the Hughes quintet. Ken Hixson was awarded a position on the Cincinnati High School All-City
