

The Honor League, an organization for senior girls, throughout the year has done much in preparing the girls for the new horizons they will surely reach in the future. With Mrs. Enolia Heile and Miss Aria Schawe as advisors, and Carole Porter as President, this club has offered the school many of its services. Among these are "Information Desk" to answer inquiries daily from visitors, "Lady Bountiful" to help swell the receipts for the Carnival, and the act of "adopting" Little Sisters. This year, because of the added Junior High, each senior had at least two sisters. The older girls acquaint the new with the school making them feel they are truly welcome at Hughes. To further this goal the Honor League members gave a Big and Little Sister Party with a minstrel show.

The annual Christmas Mother-Daughter Tea is a means of introducing the mothers to each other, as well as broadening their knowledge of Honor League accomplishments.

In September, when there were seventh, eighth, and ninth graders, who did not know their way around, "Freshie Aides" were on hand to help. These "Aides," provided by
