HEPTA BETA

Members of Hepta Beta Sorority have the distinction of knowing that they belong to a club whose founding dates back further than any other high school social club of its kind. Originally founded by seven girls as the Alpha Chapter in Detroit, Michigan, it now stands as the Beta Chapter in Cincinnati. Seven glistening pearls on a gold background form the unique pin.

Each year Hepta participates in such worthwhile activities as donating generously from their treasury to non-charitable organizations, and also entertaining at the County Home. On the lighter side slumber parties, turn-about affairs, hayrides, weiner roasts, date parties, and dances help to liven up the weekends and also to strengthen friendships that often last even after high school graduation.

OMEGA SIGMA CHI

Omega Sigma Phi, since its founding, has doubled its membership with girls from several leading high schools of the city including New Woodward, Walnut Hills, and Hughes.

Each year its effervescent and fun-loving members enjoy traditional affairs such as the winter formal, June boatride, and the Parents-Daughter Valentine Dinner, given by the Mothers' Club, which was held at the Alms Hotel. The Mr. and Miss Sorority Dance, given annually for charity, has seen Omega Sigma Phi victorious for the past three years. Preparing a Thanksgiving basket for a needy family and making stuffed dolls for orphan children were also philanthropic activities of the Omegas.

Ask for one of the forty-five girls belonging to this club her favorite colors and she'll promptly reply clear red and white, the sorority's colors.
