

Mr. Joseph C. Ayer, Assistant Principal of the Junior High School. Making the fledgling Junior High School a vital part of the Hughes tradition is a dream that is being realized.

Guidance For the Future . . .

Mrs. Ruth K. Grill, Junior High Girls' Counselor. The choice of a career and the shaping of character and personality begin early, and wise counsel is an important part of growing up.

Mr. Ralph L. Loudenslager, Boys' Counselor. The process of changing a boy into a man is not easy. Making boys aware of the opportunities and responsibilities of the world outside Hughes is Mr. Loudenslager's contribution to that process.
