In the Ninth Annual Pigskin Preview, teams from the various high schools were divided into two squads: the "Donkeys" and the "Elephants," in honor of election year. In the first segment, Walnut Hills scored a safety on Hughes. After a short rest, Daniels and Carter scored against Taft for Hughes.

For the first game of the season, the "Big Reds" traveled to Lima, Ohio. Hughes fell short of victory as Lima defeated them 34-14. Jim Carter's passes to end Paul Mueller tallied the points for the "Big Reds."

Roger Bacon, having one of its greatest seasons in many years, had little trouble in running over the "Huzites." The "Big Reds" were unable to put together an offensive drive, and lost by a score of 45-0.

In the third game of the season, the "Huzites" were unable to hold their ground as the strength of Middletown overpowered them by a score of 26-7. The "Big Red" line held strong throughout the entire battle, and showing much improvement over previous games. Bill Daniels scored the only "TD," and Walt Peters made the conversion.

At Hamilton, the "Big Blues" scored in all periods to defeat the "Huzites," 47-0. Hughes defense failed to hold their strong defensive line. Jim Carter played an outstanding offensive game, while "Rudy" Muckenfuss showed fine defensive form.

The "Big Reds" chalked up their first victory by defeating Woodward, 12-0. Hughes scored in the second and fourth periods to gain its two touchdowns. Walt Peters ran a quarterback sneak which was topped by a 45-yard touchdown run. Bill Daniels plunged over into the end zone for the second touchdown.
