

Love Affair

Tennis is a game of love. In tennis, however, love is not as exciting as most people think of it, because love means zero. All the girls in G.A.A. love to play tennis after school when the weather turns warm. Romaine Newman, Sportsleader, and Miss Compton, tennis sponsor, teach the girls grace and form in this exhilarating sport. At the close of the season each girl boasts a good forehand, backhand, and serve.

Hit The Target

Ready, aim, fire! There is heard a twang of a bow-string, and a slender arrow darts into space. On the archery range bows bend and arrows fly in much the same way they once did in ancient Greece. For centuries this sport has flourished in all parts of the world. Even today it is a favorite sport of many Americans. Here at Hughes archery is a competitive sport of skill and accuracy. The girls are divided into two groups, beginners and intermediates, and led by Sportsleader Ruth Carnahan and Miss Sarah Compton, advisor.

Carol Elwood congratulates Carol Bartholomew for a game well played.
