Salesmanship Club

Salesmanship Club, one of the oldest organizations at Hughes, was founded many years ago by Miss Mary McSurely, and is this year sponsored by Mr. Samuel Skurow. Emphasis is placed on the importance of advertising and salesmanship to young people in this club, and to help the members realize the limitless power of selling and to encourage them to sell for job opportunities in their special fields.

Several times during the year, the club was fortunate to have prominent Cincinnati citizens from the Sales Executive Council talk on current trends, techniques, and opportunities in the sales fields.

An annual Spring picnic closes the year's activities.

Jr. Council on World Affairs

The Junior Council on World Affairs had its beginning at Hughes this year, under the faculty leadership of Mr. Arthur D. Gray. It is composed of those students in social studies classes who have a desire to investigate and discuss matters of world-wide interest. The formulation of a constitution, combined with lectures, movies, and attendance at monthly meetings of the Senior Council, are the highlights of the council's first year.
