

At least one play is given yearly at HUGHES by Sages, the Dramatics Club. This year, "Around the World in 80 Days" was produced. The last serious play was "Double Door"—1953.

Rehearsal for "Around the World in 80 Days."

In 1927 a venture in Journalism, which was later destined for national fame, was begun under the advisorship of Miss Hazel Koppenhoefer. Miss Koppe has seen the Gargoyle, our school newspaper, rise to the position it now holds as one of the top papers in the country. A deep background in journalism achieved by all participating.

Mike Magin and Bob Dabney show their pride.

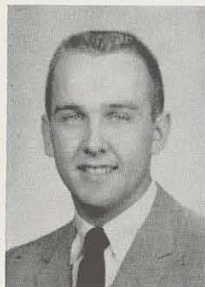

Every morning the students are awakened to the cheery voice of one of the announcers over the public address system. Consisting of 12 members, each of whom serves for four weeks, the group announces after school meetings, coming events, and other things of interest. The announcers are chosen by Mrs. Heile, speech and English teacher.

Morning greetings sent by Jim Dakin and Charles Williamson.
