

JOSEPH AYER

Visual Aids crew, kneeling left to right: Robert Shaperio, Harold Wolfenbarger, Paul Fleming, Harold Smith, Tom Franks; standing: Ronald Marion, Jack Davis, Roy Kirby, Darrell McLure, Gary Miller, Luther Lyle, Pete Minges, Mr. Ayer, Bob Finkelmeir, Ken Gay.

VISUAL AIDS TO SERVE YOU BUT NEVER IN THE DARK

Visual Aids, under the watchcare of Mr. Joseph Ayer, bring the students to a closer understanding of the subject studied. Movies, especially prepared, can provide demonstrations which the limited facilities of the instructor cannot. Mr. Ayer's staff of student workers is educated in the use of all necessary equipment.

Mr. Byles' Social Studies Class in Room 218.

W.C.E.T., a new venture in education has been employed at Hughes as an experimental measure. A few science classes take this course as a regular part of their curriculum. With unlimited facilities at their disposal the classes have opportunities to learn from wider fields of thought.

Andy Ruppanner tuning the school's
W.C.E.T. set.

