

The office staff of a school as big and as busy as Hughes is must, itself, be very busy. The sextet of office workers, who take care of the manifold secretarial duties at Hughes, deserve credit for work well done. The office staff takes care of such jobs as the announcements, typing and mimeographing the absense list, the other including handling correspondence and phone calls. As previously stated, the Hughes staff consists of six workers. They are Mr. Kizer's secretary, Miss Kohrmann, Mr. Ayer's secretary, Miss Clifton, Mr. Scheurer's secretary, Mrs. Tepe, front office, Mrs. Tharpe and Miss Hoffman, and school treasurer Mrs. Bryant.
