

Miss Mary Elizabeth Pollard, sponsor of Thespians and Sages.

Sages, the dramatic club at Hughes, is sponsored by Miss Mary Pollard. The club holds monthly meetings and presents a play every year. The most interested and active of the Sages are chosen for Thespians, the National High School Dramatics Society. The play presented this year was "Around the World in 80 Days." The plot concerned the actions of Mr. Phileas Fogg, an English gentleman, who has wagered twenty thousand pounds that he can go around the world in eighty days in the year, 1872, and of Passepartou, Fogg's French servant. Fogg and Passepartou are hampered in their journey by Mr. Fix, a police detective, but all ends well with a Hindu Princess to boot.
