

Although Hughes did not score, they looked better than the score showed. However, the offensive drive of our team started too late, and the Big Reds went down in defeat, 28-0. The key men in the game for Hughes were Ken Peters and Bob Banes.

Scott Tyler led a fierce attack against the "Middies" of Middletown, but fell short of a victory, 27-19. The Hughes defense, after giving up 27 points in the first half, held Middletown scoreless in the second half. Tim Fleming showed fine punting when the offense was unable to connect. "Scotty" intercepted a "Middie" pass, and was on his way for another T.D. when time ran out.

The following weekend, Hughes played host to the Hamilton "Big Blue" at Trechter Stadium. Tim Fleming intercepted a Hamilton pass, and Scott Tyler and Larry Hughes drove deep into "Big Blue" territory. However, the Bid Reds were unable to move the ball across the Hamilton goal line. Later, "Scotty" recovered a Hamilton fumble, and followed it with a long run. Hughes lost 21-0 but not without putting up a good fight.

Hughes opened their P.H.S.L. League play against Woodward. In this game the Hughes offense started to click. It looked like Hughes was going to have a victory, but the Bulldogs were not to be denied. Hughes was leading 25-18 with just 46 seconds to play when Woodward connected with a long touchdown pass. The conversion was good and the game ended 25-25. Fine defense and offense were executed by the Big Reds.
