

Scotty "Carries the Mail,"
Around Right End!

took the opening kickoff and kept possession of the ball until they had scored. The Big Red offense was once again led by the fast running, high scoring halfback, Scott Tyler. Hughes fought hard, but once again, lost to a more powerful foe 25-13.

Hughes' third league foe was Walnut Hills. The game was even for the first twelve minutes of play but then the Eagles struck. The Hughes defense weakened and Walnut halfback, Larry Cox, scored on long runs. Scott Tyler again showed fine offensive ability for Hughes and the score wound up Walnut Hills 25—Hughes 12.

Finally the tide changed and Hughes trounced Western Hills, preseason choice for League Champ, 20-0. Once again "Scotty" ran wild and scored on touchdown runs of 7, 51, and 56 yards. Bob Banes also did a creditable job on offense for Hughes. Jesse Hodges intercepted a Mustang pass, which later resulted in a T.D. for the Big Reds. Hughes, after a disappointing start, had started to roll.

The next encounter was against the Taft Senators. The Big Reds kept up their determined spirit, fine defense and great offense to wallop the Senators 37-13.

Hughes gridders ended their season against their arch-rival, Withrow. The game, the year's most important for both teams, was fought hard and well. Hughes was led by Scott Tyler and the Tigers by John Milhouse. Don Osswald's T.D. coupled with "Scotty's" two were not enough to overcome Milhouse and Company as Hughes lost 32-20.

Tyler's On His Way

