Hughes High can consider itself very lucky when it comes to the sport of golf. For many years now, the golf team has been organized and coached by Mr. Morgan Jones. You would have to look far and wide for a better coach, because Mr. Jones is a professional golfer. In the summer he teaches lessons at the California Golf Course. In the winter, he has classes several nights a week.

The golfers are at a disadvantage this year, as they are every year, in that not very much interest is taken in the sport around school. Consequently, there is just a small group representing Hughes, a school of nearly 3000.

This year the team is composed of Charles Phillips, Richard

Slack, Dick Yelton, and Bob Keller. Hughes' chance for victory rides on these boy's shoulders.

Following is a copy of this year's schedule, and where they are to be held.

Mon.—April 21: Huz vs. Woodward at Losantiville

Mon.—April 28: Huz vs. Western at Western

Mon.—May 5: Huz vs. Walnut at Kenwood
