

CHOOSE YOUR SPEED IN INDIVIDUAL SPORTS

Top: Carol Elwood hopes it will be a ringer.

Bottom: Ruth Stahlmann waits her turn while Carol Ziegenhardt shoots.

Top: Jody Drohan scores a point.

Bottom: Ruth Deubel starts the game while Gay Stocker looks on.

Individual sports were played during the winter season in the girls' gym. A glance found girls buzzing from one activity to another, dodging the horseshoes to reach the shuffleboard court. The competition was great, and the line was long behind the ping-pong table. The scorers were desperately trying to concentrate despite the distraction of the girls' screams and the clattering horseshoes and shuffleboard disks.

Nancy Langland, sports leader, and Miss Mary Busser, sponsor, arranged a ladder tournament in all three sports. The girls played individual tournaments until only the best were left, and these played in an elimination tournament.

This year, for the first time, badminton was a separate sport, played on a different day than individual sports. "Watch the birdie," held during the second winter season, was under the supervision of Miss Verlie Meyers.

The playday was held on May 7 at Lunken Airport and included individual sports, softball, and golf. All those who entered Spring Sports Day in individual sports played horseshoes, shuffleboard, table tennis, and badminton.

