Phi Chi was formed by the combination of two smaller organizations in 1955. The three pearls in their pin's crown represent lasting love, high morals, and faith in God. Although a comparatively young sorority, Phi Chi is growing rapidly. This year the membership consists of 35 girls. Annual social activities include the "Mr. and Miss Popularity" dance, a Christmas formal, and various date parties, slumber parties, picnics and hayrides. This year the girls toasted their mothers at a tea. The adoption of 16 six to eight-year-old boys from the General Protestant Orphanage was the charitable highlight of the year. The girls will act as big sisters to the boys even after graduation. Interfraternity caroling, visiting Long View and collecting for the Crippled Children's Easter Drive are other humanitarian activities.
