

Head of Hughestown

The fulfillment of the ideals of our country and the preservation of the way of life as outlined in the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution, and the Bill of Rights demand that every individual understand and appreciate his duties, responsibilities, and privileges as a citizen in our representative government and protect his country from aggression and subversive ideologies.

To this end the school should aid the learner to participate intelligently in democratic processes; to develop respect for legally constituted authority; to appreciate and understand the struggle and processes by which our democracy has been achieved; to become an acceptable and contributing member of his family, school, and cultural group; and to gain an appreciation of the world-wide community.

Because of your fine attitude and cooperative spirit, citizens of Hughestown, U. S. A., we believe we have had some measure of success during this school year of 1958-'59.

Sincerely,

Edwin Sutton Jr.
