

Leading the band through the Hughes Alma Mater is the new director, Mr. Curtis.

The Big Red Band Arouses Pep, Enthusiasm and School Spirit

This year the Hughes Big Red Marching Band welcomed a new director in Mr. Gilbert Curtis. Mr. Curtis formerly taught at Schroder Junior High School, Woodward High School, and the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music. In addition to teaching at Hughes, Mr. Curtis conducted the choir at Wyoming Baptist Church.

At present the Big Red Band consists of approximately eighty-five members.

The main activity of the Band was playing for all Hughes football games. Despite the weather the Hughes band practiced faithfully at Coy Field after school. During this time the band members gave up many of their other activities but felt the work was not in vain.

The Band was always a pleasing sight in their bright red uniforms during the half-time of the Windy tuba boys show their spirit.