

(Left to right): Pat Wilson, John Ames, Carole McGoy, Janet Gausmann; Miss Koppenhoefer, Todd Ertel.

Gargoyle Informs Hughes

All towns have newspapers, and ours is no exception. The Hughes Gargoyle, a weekly publication, has been published under the direction of Miss Hazel Koppenhoefer since its beginning in 1927.

The first newspaper was only a mimeographed one the size of a lady's handkerchief. At this time it was a weekly. Gradually, the size increased until it became the Gargoyle that we know today.

Although the editorial staff is composed of members of the journalism class, any student interested in writing is welcomed. The managing editors are juniors, but there are representatives from all classes.

(Left to right): Pat Howard, Pat Weghorst, Mr. Skurcw, Adviser; Mary Lou Diersing, Ansel Harlow, Mary Jane Rietman.

Gargoyle reporters prepare stories for the next edition.

