Chi Omega Sigma, a closely knit fraternal organization, was formed in 1923 by a minister, as a Sunday-School group. The boys then decided to adopt a constitution as a fraternity and they became the Alpha Chapter, with its home at Hughes. Since then, chapters have been established at Western Hills, Withrow, and Woodward.

Each year one of the outstanding events for the fraternity is the C.O.S. Sweetheart Dance. Other social events include date parties, hayrides, and Interfraternity caroling parties. The boys also enjoy taking part in inter-fraternity sports.

During the 1958 rush season the fraternity gave both an informal and formal party. The religious ceremony of their formal initiation is outstanding today as the symbol of friendship among the members of this organization.

Chi Omega Sigma is ably led by the officers.
