

Faculty

The wisdom of our teachers, like a jewel, shines through the halls of Hughes.
It sheds its many-faceted brilliance in mathematics classrooms, social studies classrooms, English classrooms,
and all others—wherever students sit.
Its gleam lights up the eyes of students seeking to learn, but some of its sparkle even splashes upon unsuspecting students trying to avoid the acquisition of knowledge.

