

Mr. Edwin Stephens

This year a new assistant principal has come to Hughes. Formerly principal of Lyons Junior High School, Madisonville, Mr. Edwin Stephens now busies himself with the many duties of his office.

His largest job is assisting Mr. Sutton in the running of the senior high school. In this capacity he supervises attendance, discipline, assemblies, lockers, the bookroom, and the lunchrooms.

Graduated from Westminster College and the University of Cincinnati, Mr. Stephens is well-qualified to cope with problems of a growing population at Hughes.

Hughes Principals Direct Activities

Mr. Anderson D. Owens, Jr.

Mr. Anderson D. Owens, Jr., is the capable and well-liked assistant principal in charge of the junior high school. This is his second year at Hughes, and he has already become an indispensable person to the school organizations as supervisor of all the junior high clubs. Under his leadership the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades have become an important unit at Hughes.

Mr. Owens graduated from the University of Cincinnati, where he received his B.A., B. of Ed. and M. of Ed. degrees.

