

Mr. Hammons' classes prove that singing is fun.

Mr. Curtis assists the young saxophone players.

Music Adds Charm To Life

The musical organizations at Hughes add much sparkle to the pep rallies, Christmas, Easter, and Thanksgiving assemblies, and the many out-of-school performances in which they participate.

The Big Red Marching Band, Junior Band, and Orchestra are capably handled by Mr. Gilbert Curtis, our bandmaster, who also aids in the presentation of the annual musical production, "Merry-Go-Round."

Junior Choir, Senior Choir, and Ensemble are under the excellent direction of Mr. Bige Hammons. The black and red robes of the Senior Choir and Ensemble are a symbol of the high standards and skill their owners must possess in order to be in these outstanding organizations.

Mrs. Joan Cavally, who directs the Eighth Grade and the Freshman Choirs, also takes on the management of the Freshman Girls' Glee Club. Since her arrival at Hughes in 1957, Mrs. Cavally has made Freshman Choir as much an institution of the Junior High School, as Senior Choir is of the High School.
