

Student Activities

Student organizations add radiance and warmth to school life, much as the sun brings brightness to the earth.

To group activities students bring a storehouse of energy, and the resulting good works in publications, student government and service clubs

are a power in their own lives and in the community.

Sparkling performances by musicians and dramatists also play a part in creating a sunny atmosphere at Hughes.

