

Business Staff—Mary Lou Diersing, Pete Schultes, Ben Schinkel, Doris Tolbert, Judie Sipe, Calleen Williams, Peggy Couch.

Preparing to meet the weekly deadline are the typists, photographers, and cartoonists.

"Goodbye, Miss Kope"

Hughes is losing more than just an English and journalism teacher this June when Miss Hazel Koppenhoefer retires. In the thirty-seven years Miss "Kope" has taught at Hughes, she has played an integral part in school activities and has won the respect and affection of many students and teachers.

When she came to Hughes, she became sponsor of "Old Hughes", a monthly literary magazine. Miss Kope organized the Gargoyle thirty-two years ago and has been its adviser ever since. Because of her guidance, the Gargoyle has won many All-American awards. Miss Koppenhoefer also supervised the publication of six Hughes Annuals and sponsored school sororities.

Hughes will never have another teacher who can surpass Miss Kope's achievements and influence.

Miss Koppenhoefer praises her hard-working editors, Bill, Diane, Debbie, and Sandy, for their fine paper.

