"Two thousand scoops later and we are still pledging," say Dale and Ernie. Don't worry, fellows, the weatherman says more snow tomorrow.

Chi Omega Sigma

Chi Omega Sigma is a closely knit fraternal fellowship that was formed in 1923 as a Sunday School Group. Soon after, it adopted a constitution as a fraternity at Hughes and has expanded to chapters at Western Hills and Woodward.

The diversified social activities of the organization include date parties, stag parties, hayrides, and the highlight of the year's activities, the C. O. S. Sweetheart Dance. The Sweetheart of C. O. S. is one of the most highly-prized honors at Hughes. The fraternity also participates in the Interfraternity Caroling and Bake Sale.

During the 1959 season, C. O. S. gave its traditional rush parties. The candidates selected by the fraternity were pledged during the fall pledging period, but after the ordeal, they were welcomed into the group at the inspiring initiation, symbolic of the ideals and traditions of the fraternity.

First Row: R. Jennings, President; B. Standley, Corresponding Secretary; D. Gabel. Second Row: E. Taylor, C. Wingard, Historian; T. Perry, Chaplain; P. Yoder, J. East.
