

Junior High

The sparkling world of junior high is like a shimmering drop of dew.
It exists in the morning of our high school years remaining only a short time before changing its form.
This three-year refreshing period finds students full of curiosity and vitality, trying to ready themselves for what lies ahead.

