

A black and white photograph of three male students sitting at a long wooden table in a library, focused on their work. The student on the left wears a patterned short-sleeved shirt and is writing in a notebook. The student in the middle wears a dark polo shirt and is also writing. The student on the right wears a light-colored long-sleeved shirt and is looking down at his work. The table is cluttered with books, papers, and a binder. In the background, tall bookshelves are filled with books. Signs on the shelves read "HOUSE RECREATION" above "700" and "LITERATURE" above "800".

SCHOLARSHIP

We share in a tradition a century of scholars has upheld. We pass the lamp of learning to our followers.
