

Nancy Huppertz and Diane Deiters won honors for Hughes this year. Nancy, Girls' Week representative, was elected to City Council. Diane won the National Council of English Teachers Achievement Award.

Tradition dictates that girl graduates wear white dresses and carry red roses. Christine Anger and Phil Werle, class president, agree it's a good tradition.

These Add Distinction to Class of Sixty-one

This may be a first for Hughes High School! These seniors are Carolyn, Darryl, and Patricia Ball, talented triplets.

