

Mr. Hannum Continues Work As Junior High Principal

Mr. Harry Hannum, in his third year at Hughes, is principal of the junior high school. This job includes attendance, guidance, discipline and regulation of junior high activities.

Mr. Hannum formerly was assistant principal of Schwab Junior High and is a graduate of Western Hills High School. He received his college education at the University of Cincinnati and later taught physical education.

Mr. Hannum strongly stresses discipline in the education of junior high school students. In cooperation with the junior high teachers and counselors, he helps the students adapt to high school life. Students in need of help or advice can find Mr. Hannum in his junior high office.

Counselors Help Plan the Future

Cheerful Mrs. Jean Frehse, junior and senior girls' counselor, is always kept busy giving beneficial aid and advice to her many girls.

Eleventh and twelfth-grade boys receive necessary counseling from Mr. Ralph Loudenslager, who gives guidance to help boys in the future.

Below: Students facing unsolved problems can always consult Mr. Albert Rouse, sophomore counselor, who is in his second year at Hughes.

Miss Dorothy Hoffman, junior high girls' counselor, assists students in planning their courses and advises them about good school conduct.

Junior high boys' counselor, Mr. John Acree, aids the pupils in arranging their schedules and planning for future years at Hughes.

