

Newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Hanon, study and admire a new painting.

Faculty Pursues The Arts

Hughes faculty members participate in the pursuit of the arts. Mrs. Stern has a collection of paintings, including a Picasso and a Tamayo.

Music-minded teachers, Mr. Stier, Miss Newman and Mrs. Douglas, enjoy attending symphonies and operas. Miss Schwach and Mr. Baxter, who like to sing, might get some direction from choir directors Mrs. McKibben, Mr. Hammons and Mr. Curtis.

The stage has followers, too, as Mr. French has spent summers in summer stock and professional acting companies. Non-participants, like Miss Pennington, Miss Johnson, Miss Wyler, and Mrs. Hamlin, enjoy attending the theatre. Mr. Cherry has spent five years teaching Afro-Cuban, modern and semi-ballet dancing in New York.

The arts play an important part in not only the work, but also the leisure activities of many teachers.

Melville Byles
Social Studies

Mary Caskey
Home Economics

De Anne Cassini
English

Evander Cherry
Science

Richard Curp
Science

Judith Davis
Spanish

Josephine Deutsch
Art

Leslie Douglas
English, German

Edward Driver
Mathematics

Edward Farmer
Mathematics

Fred Foegler
Mathematics

Russell French
English