

Linda discovers that being a senior isn't all fun! Before plunging into another night's assignments, she gets comfortably situated.

"Many times I put my pen down for a five-minute break that lasted all night!"

Busy seniors find lunch time a welcome relief from the morning's trials and tribulations. Lin and Ron relax over a hot meal.

"Ron and I had many summit conferences over the lunch table."

Many seniors participate in activities after school hours. Linda, captain of the majorettes, proudly displays the beaded headdress she made.

"I'll always remember the stripes, tassels, and batons of my junior and senior years."
