

Dewitt Wins the Battle

Each new day brings another memorable experience in the struggle to be a senior. After depositing coat and hat, seniors can be seen racing to 312 to meet the 8:20 deadline. Passing to first period, boys begin another day of demanding but rewarding work.

Seventh bell finds senior boys participating in a variety of sports, including football, basketball, track and baseball. Many are officers and members of Math Club, Hi-Y, Honor Society, H Club, and Pep Club. Hidden talents are revealed when boys take part in Merry-Go-Round. Boys demonstrating writing ability are members of the ANNUAL or Gargoyle staff.

Ambitions of many senior boys are discussed with Mr. Ralph Loudenslager. Information is provided to boys concerning college, careers, or service requirements.

As each day draws to a close, boys realize that graduation is drawing near, and as they prepare for the future, they are well supplied with everlasting memories of a successful year.

Dewitt Battle, co-captain of the 1962 football squad, and Larry Watts, his good friend, don their gridiron clothes for the last time as Big Reds.

"In this game of football the disappointments come along with the thrills. Larry knows what I mean."

Dewitt's cocker spaniel, Taffy, greets his master arriving home from another day's battle with books and lessons.

"One of these days I'll teach Taffy to carry my books for me."

Betty Sullivan patiently looks on as Dewitt purchases from Arthur Weingard at the student book store the math tablet she needs.

"I might as well get used to buying things for Betty—I'll be doing plenty of it in the future!"
