

Dramatics is one of the more exciting courses offered by the English Department. Acting in this thrilling scene are Jack Kreimer, Kenny Warren, Fred Kirchgessner, Kay Napier, and Lazalia Bridges.

Numerous Books Read Here

Hughes High School library, under the capable direction of Miss Matilda Pennington and Mrs. La Verne Pauls, is one of the finest among the school libraries of Cincinnati. The Hughes library contains approximately 18,000 volumes in addition to a wide selection of recent and past periodicals.

The library is officially named after Miss Clara B. Jordan, an alumna and former Latin teacher at Hughes.

Hard at work studying their day's English assignment in the library are seniors Gene Eberhart, Jenine Reed, Chuck Dragon, and Diana Roark.

