

Track star leaps hurdles in hard practice at Coy Field.

In a traditional atmosphere, "The Goddess We Adore" provides inspiration for progress. The times demand it. Goals of scholarship, citizenship, sportsmanship, and leadership are held before students throughout their school years. Well-trained teachers, new equipment, additional library books, and some remodeling make possible greater strides in the education of this leap-year graduating class.

