

"Welcome back" were the words heard upon Mrs. Holscher's return after an extended absence. Mrs. Jackson (left) was her substitute.

"Let's read" were the words used every day in Miss Wycoff's reading laboratory. Directed systematic practice increases students' ability in comprehension, vocabulary and reference skills.

"Beat 'em, Big Reds" were the words of encouragement from Mr. Sutton, an enthusiastic follower of Hughes teams.

"Busy, busy, busy" were the words describing Mr. Jones' office as new secretary, Mrs. Geneva Bates, receives special instructions.

Faculty Feelings On Work and Play Expressed in "Words"

"Merry Christmas" were the cheery words exchanged by Mrs. McDaniel, Mrs. Wyler, Mrs. Rosen, Mr. Acree, and Mrs. Hanon at the faculty holiday tea.
