

"Music Man" Presented

The curtain rises, the lights dim, and the fifteenth annual Merry-Go-Round goes on stage. M-G-R '64 presents the recent Broadway musical comedy, "The Music Man."

Professor Hill comes to Iowa trying to 'sell' the town a boys' band while diverting the attention of Mayor Shinn and Miss Paroo, the River City librarian-music teacher. Tommy, coming to his rescue, directs the band, and the music man romances Marian, the librarian.

Congratulations to Mr. French, Mr. Curtis, Mr. Wilkey, Miss Barker, Mrs. McKibben, Mr. Ayer, Mr. Wilson, Mrs. Caskey, and all the musicians, cast and crew for another thrilling M-G-R!

With mike in one hand and with at least five other hands doing jobs, Director French puts the show together.

Library dancers wait for downbeat—M. Woronoko, S. Brooks, J. Doolittle, D. Warren, V. Sherrill, B. Newton.

Merry-Go-Round Band: Walter Fox, Marilyn Tilford, Phyllis Eken, Warren McMillan, Terry Schott, Rosemary Stelbasky, Pamela Cohen, Tim Jeffries, Jack Kriemer, Rick Moore, John Mullins, Donald Banks, Tom Weimer, John Benne, Ronald Farthing, Jerry Tepe, Russell Clippinger, Jin Westermeyer, John Brelitch, Gerald Smith, Kenneth Harlan, Yvonne Moore.

Eulalie Shinn, played by Terri Daniels, talks to the women of River City about Marian Paroo, librarian.
