

Girls Prepare for Full Season of Spring Sports

Archery

As the archery season begins, sports leader Pat Armstrong demonstrates to Boisine Howard the art of stringing the bow.

Beverly Gilliard, Pat Armstrong, Judie Bankemper, Boisine Howard, and Gloria Smith line up to practice serving before starting to tennis courts.

Tennis

As good weather arrives, girls interested in tennis, badminton, and archery gather to discuss the fine points of each sport. Approximately seventy girls participate every spring. Practice is the only assurance of developing skill in these three sports demanding speed, precision, and accuracy.

Badminton

Laura Brown and Clara Reed practice hitting the birdie to get ready for spring sports play-day at Airport Playfield.

