

As we attend school from seventh grade to senior year, we learn to love our goddess more and more. Each year, through new experiences, we acquire deeper appreciation of the importance of our school, and the singing of the Alma Mater brings us greater inspiration. Our affection for our goddess increases as does our knowledge.

And we Love