

kind of game

Success in interscholastic games places "The Goddess We Adore" high in the sports world. Participation in athletics and the entire physical education program helps us to develop a sound body as well as a sound mind. Sportsmanship, co-operation, and physical activity combine to build wholesome attitudes.