

Hughes

To her name

Student life at Hughes revolves around clubs and activities as well as scholarship. Extra-curricular activities assist each of us in developing the full potential of his personality. School organizations contribute to a well-rounded program. Social and creative activities, community service, and student government build leaders.

