

The Senior Class elected Rosalind Schneider, vice-president; Tom Mineard, treasurer; Jim Seibel, president; and Mary Puthoff, secretary, to represent them in '62.

Class of '62 Proud of Activities

The Senior Class, proud of many accomplishments, achieved because of better understanding of school problems, appreciate the guidance of the sponsors, Miss Verlie Meyers, Miss Aria Schawe, and Mr. Paul Bowers.

The Harvest Hop, a dance given in the fall, proved to be a profitable project.

The traditional Mistletoe Magic Christmas party for seniors, held at the University of Cincinnati Y.M.C.A., was a financial as well as social success.

Among the many activities that will always be remembered was the junior-senior prom.

Graduation and plans for the future were discussed for months before seniors received diplomas and said their final farewell to Hughes. It was then that all seniors realized that as the years pass, they would "love her more and more," their Alma Mater.

Senior sponsors admire red velvet curtain given by Class of '61.

