

Most Active Seniors Demonstrate Leadership Ability

LUCY GANGLOFF, WITH 57 ACTIVITY POINTS, is the busiest Hughes senior. She has well earned this distinction. During the past three years, she has been editor and senior adviser of the Hughes newspaper, co-editor of THE GODDESS WE ADORE, president of Math Club, on Honor Society's executive board, and an active member of many other clubs. Besides this, she carries a heavy academic schedule, participating in advanced English and mathematics, and maintains a 3.8 average.

Each May Student Council holds its traditional Point System Assembly, at which it gives recognition to the seniors who have been the most active while at Hughes.

The number of points a person accumulates results from his participation in clubs, sports, and other activities. Each winter Student Council, supervised by Miss Kloak, passes out Point System forms and, after all senior high pupils have completed them, the forms are tabulated and number of points recorded.

The ten Huzites pictured on these pages have accumulated the most points and deserve to be called the leaders of Hughes. Most are active in the senior class, student council, and publications. All are members and officers of several clubs. These students have rendered valuable service to their alma mater and have certainly demonstrated their pride in "the goddess we adore."
