

Jackie Watkins, as Emily, remembers life as it was on earth. She talks about Grover's Corners with the DEAD PEOPLE.

Wilder's "Our Town" Major Dramatic Production of Year

Students in the dramatics department, who make up the membership of Sages and Thespians, had a successful year. The presentation of Wilder's unusual play, directed by Miss Frances Haas, was well-received. First-place honors came to Jackie Watkins for her dramatic reading given at the District Speech Festival. Wendel Young won second place for an original speech on freedom.
