

Sellers of Publications

"Someone please buy my last Gargoyle," is a familiar plea heard in many junior high homerooms every other Wednesday morning. Another well-known cry is, "Buy an Annual now, or you'll be sorry in June!"

Credit for the sales of Hughes publications must go to Annual and Gargoyle homeroom representatives. The financial success of the newspaper and yearbook depend on the efforts of the representatives who work throughout the year.

Achievement Emphasized In Junior High Honor Society

The Hughes Chapter of the National Junior High Honor Society, founded four years ago, consists of students maintaining a 3.5 or higher average from the beginning of seventh grade and rating high in character, citizenship, leadership, and service. This year the society sponsored a dance to raise money for the spring banquet. Among new members inducted this year were Marie Ludeke, eighth grade; Melinda Boyles, Susan Keller, William Rippetoe, Vernon Schell, and Nancy Stemmer.
