Hi-Y Maintains Standards

Paul Kamleiter delivers a speech on "What Do You Give to Your Country?" in competition for the governorship of Ohio.

With a nineteen-year history entirely under its present sponsor, Mr. Paul Bowers, the Senior Hi-Y has good reason to be proud of its contributions to home, school, and community. This year's members continue to maintain high standards of Christian character, earn good grades, and participate in extra-curricular activities.

Hi-Y engages in community service projects. This year the boys visited Drake Memorial Hospital with Senior Y-Teens, traveled to Wesley Home along with Honor League, and went caroling with Y-Teens at Good Samaritan Hospital at Christmas. They took cookies and ice-cream to the institutions as well as happiness and cheer. Two other projects included selling postcards and candy.

Senior Hi-Y sends representatives annually to the Camp Nelson Dodd Leadership Conference and to the model state legislature held in Columbus. Hughes' Hi-Y was honored by the election of Paul Kamleiter, a senior, to represent Hamilton County Hi-Ys in the race for governor.
