

"Horseplay Hurts" was the main theme of the Student Council citizenship and safety campaign. Special "throw-outs" were distributed to the students as a part of this campaign during the week of January 29-February 2, and a special contest was held. Each day one student was chosen, at random, to receive a prize. The winners had to be wearing the Council "throw-out" to receive their prize. Other themes suggested for the campaign included "Don't Gossip—Arrows Hurt," "Would You Get the Job?", and "Do Your Actions Recommend You?"

The Project Committee also completed several service projects this year. The committee made tray favors for one of the local hospitals, decorated Valentine tray favors for the faculty, celebrated Girls' Week by honoring the various classes of girls, and sponsored a bake sale.

Final activities of the '62 Council were the Classical Assembly and the Point System Assembly. The first is the annual program sponsored by the Council to provide classical musical entertainment for the students. The second is the annual recognition assembly for outstanding seniors. Each of the most active seniors receives an award for his participation in school and extracurricular activities. Lucy Gangloff and Kellus Vanover took charge of the Classical Assembly, while Bonnie Kraus and Judy McDaniel supervised the Point System program.

The Student Council Board including F. Wescoe, L. Ramundo, Miss Kloak, Sponsor; S. Thompson, T. Brillinger, B. Kraus, J. Oettinger, J. McDaniel, J. Keller, S. Wilkymacky, M. Coshun, W. Dearwester initiate their school clean-up campaign.

This is the domain of Hughes' governing body, the Senior Student Council. Here the Council works diligently and efficiently.
