

Many responsibilities are fulfilled by the senior class officers: Tony Hodge, president; Fred Patrick, treasurer; Betty Newton, secretary; Paulette Orlemann, vice-president.

With Mr. Hobson's Help, Officers Guide Seniors Through Final Year

With mixed emotions, the Class of '65 has completed its final year at Hughes, a year characterized by activity, enthusiasm, and hard work. Each senior can fondly recall his feeling of relief upon completion of his last examination, the feeling of pride each time a Big Red team was victorious, and his feeling of "dignity" on Pigtail-Bowtie Day.

Now, at graduation time, the Class of '65 holds the key to a future filled with challenge.

In the traditional manner, Mr. Hobson presents senior class president Tony Hodge with a gavel symbolizing his effective leadership throughout the year.
