Coach Thomas' Gridders Disappointed with '64 Record Big Reds Land in Seventh Place, Ahead of Central

The Big Reds opened the season with a loss against Sidney but came back the next week to defeat the Central Knights, 30-0. This proved to be the only Hughes win in '64, although the Big Reds played a 6-6 tie with Aiken. Hughes suffered five League losses against Withrow, Walnut Hills, Taft, Woodward, and Western Hills. Colerain's Cardinals handed the Big Reds their final defeat.

The Hughes gridders showed flashes of fine passing and brilliant running and managed to score at least once against every opponent except Withrow, but victory eluded them after the early-season win over Central. Richard Salter, offense, and Benny Miles, defense, were named to the P.H.S.L. all-star squad. Ron Smith received honorable mention.
