

Charles Beckley and Ed Casey show their fine pitching form.

Ed Casey and Jeff Reggin show their form as Ron Smith calls the pitches.

Success of Hughes Nine Depends on Sophomore Potential

After a 1964 season of sixteen wins and fifteen losses, the Hughes baseball team hopes for an improved record this year.

The many sophomores on the '65 team lack experience, but Coach Otto expects returning senior lettermen Ron Smith, Harry Vogel and Rick Salter to provide enough poise and leadership to spark the Big Reds to another championship. Hughes traditionally has winning seasons in baseball.

The Big Reds play all their Public High School rivals and also such other teams as Covington Holmes, Ludlow, Newport Catholic, and Oak Hills. The '65 schedule will test the talent of Mr. Otto's "Diamond Darlings" (as they have been called!).

Coach Otto talks with Sam Kimble while other team members discuss coming season.

Coach Otto and Co-Captains Ron Smith and Richard Salter look over the schedule.

